IN MEMORY

IN MEMORY
TRENT — In loving memory of our dear mother and wife, Mrs. Bessie Gilbert Trent, who passed away one year ago, April 5, 1956.

It was a Sunday morning,
When our Savior took the dear one called you home, it was his will.
But, Oh, how our hearts ache still.
Those happy days we once enjoyed,
Since mother with us could not stay
Remembrances kept well, never fade
In the hearts of those who loved you true.

A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled.
Our prayers are that when God shall call us,
We may be likewise in heaven with you.
—Sadly missed by
HUSBAND & CHILDREN.

IN MEMORIAM
In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, Mrs. A. B. Ferguson, who departed this life nine years ago today, April 7, 1948.
Right always makes us feel sad and lonely.

For on the seventh day of that month, dear mother, you left us to sad and blue.
To dwell with Jesus, where there will always be happiness.
Now we think you, to the one we call, the great, great and loving mother in heaven as we long to be with you and take your place.
By your loved ones on earth day by day where you can no more stay.
Dear mother, you left us with tears, with our dear mother with you we had bright and golden years.
—Sadly missed by
Her Children.

NEWS BRIEFS

TO REPEAT PAGEANT

The pageant, The Appomattox Story, written by Miss Flora Belle Williams, will be presented at the Elementary School on Wednesday, April 17, at 8:15 P. M.

A total of 168 grade pupils, from the first through the seventh grade, will take part in the pageant.

Among the scenes, the following will be given: Indian Dance, Indian Love Call, Square Dance, Minuet, Grant and Lee. Admission will be 35 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

This pageant was presented to visiting school pupils and teachers at 10 A. M. and at 1:30 P. M. on Monday, April 9. It received many complimentary comments, and now will be repeated for local people.

ANNUAL SENIOR PLAY

The annual Senior Class play, "Rest Assured," a three-act comedy, will be presented tonight at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium. This is a very unusual and exciting comedy, in which a man dies and comes back as a ghost to haunt Mr. Morlock, a "grouchy old goat" who doesn't like anything but money.

Oakville P.-T. A.

The Oakville P.-T. A. will meet Tuesday night, April 16, at the school at 7:30. The program will be on Mental Health. Mrs. Basil Lucado will be in charge of the program.

ALMOND INJURED

J. T. Almond, 66, local business man, was admitted to Lynchburg General Hospital Tuesday, with scalp lacerations after his car was struck by a C&O freight just south of Lynchburg. Hospital attendants later described his condition as satisfactory. Almond was reported as leaving Lynchburg via a short cut to Route 460, which led across the railway crossing. His car had passed over three of the trucks and had started across the last rails when it was hit by an eastbound freight, moving slowly at the time. The accident occurred at 11:45 A. M.

BENEFIT DANCE

There will be a dance at the American Legion Hall Friday, April 19, from 8:30 until 12:00. Music will be provided by the Southerners. This is being given for the benefit of James Hall. Admission: $1.00 per person. The committee is as follows: Jim Woody, Nina Barlow, Gail Hillsman, Hazel Woody, Pearl Mitchell and Peggy Smith.

TO GO ON TOUR

Turn about is fair play. Tuesday Appomattox played host to hundreds of school pupils coming here for an April 9 history tour. Tomorrow, over 100 Appomattox pupils will go to Williamsburg and Jamestown for a similar tour. The local group will go by chartered buses.

DISTRICT FEDERATION MEETS AT AMHERST

District III, Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs will hold its annual meeting on Wednesday, April 17, at Amherst County High School, at 10:00 .A M. Delegates representing each of the 16 home demonstration clubs in Appomattox County are planning to attend. Registration begins at 9:30 A. M., and members are requested to arrive at that time.

Mrs. R. C. Hubbard, County Program of Work Chairman, will give the county report; Mrs. J. H. Ransom, County Club Treasurer, will present "Pennies for Friendship"; Mrs. O. W. Martin, Jr., will lead the group in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Members planning to leave from the home agent's office are requested to meet at the office around 8:30 A. M.

17th Anniversary

Wednesday, April 10 market the 17th anniversary of the establishment of the Appomattox Court House National Park, that event having taken place on April 10, 1940.

It is the policy of the National Park Service to observe Establishment Day each year, and the pe nonent at Old Appomattox Court House were on special duty yesterday, and the McLean House was open free to the public.

Fine Promotion Staged Here On Anniversary

One of the most successful promotions staged here in recent years took place Tuesday, when history students in schools in Southside Virginia came here for an April 9 anniversary observance. Estimates are that upwards of 1,500 were at Old Appomattox Court House during the day. The weather man provided ideal weather for students to tour the scenes connected with the "gentleman's peace" made here 92 years ago by Generals Lee and Grant.

Sponsored by the Appomattox County Jamestown Festival Year Committee, of which Calvin Robinson is chairman; and directed by Dr. Aubrey Keesee, County School Supervisor, the event moved with almost professional smoothness. A feature of the day was the presentation of a pageant, The Appomattox Story, at 10 A. M. and 1:30 P. M. at the local Elementary School. Written by Miss Flora Belle Williams, school principal, the pageant was carried through by 168 grade pupils. There was room for 490 in the school auditorium to witness each presentation, and reservations had been made in advance by visiting groups to fill that quota, leaving a considerable number unable to see this feature. However, a full day of tours was provided for all the groups. Local student guides escorted each visiting group, by advance assignment. Explanation of scenes witnessed was provided by National Park Service personnel, local teachers and student guides.

One of the many successful features was a loud speaker at the historic poplar tree under which Gen. Lee stood to deliver his famous Order No. 9 to the Army of Northern Virginia. A recording by a professional artist was played for each group on the spot with equipment furnished and manned by the Lynchburg National Guard. Major Chas. E. Morris and Master Sergeant James T. Webster operated this equipment. In addition to the recording of the Farewell Address, a recording of Dixie was played as visiting groups arrived at the tree. Arrangements were made through Col. John C. Steck, of the 2nd Bn., 116th Inf., Lynchburg.

Also present during the day was a large number of tourists who had been attracted here by the generous publicity accorded this occasion by the daily press, television and radio. One tourist from Kentucky stated that her father had walked all the way home after the Surrender at Appomattox, and her party had driven many extra miles in order to be at Appomattox on April 9.

Many of the student groups came with picnic lunches, but hundreds were fed at the two local school cafeterias and local eating places. They had prepared special economy lunches.

Those in charge of the days activities here were lavish in praise for the orderly and correct behavior of the guests from other schools, and for the enthusiasm and efficiency shown by the Appomattox pupil guides.

Praise was also accorded those who prepared the costumes for the pageant and aided in its presentation.

Perhaps the most interviewed and photographed people at the Old Court House were Malcolm E. Mason, Jr. and his daughter, Miss Betty Mason, of Richmond, who came in full costume as Gen. J. E. B. Stuart and Belle Boyd, the famous Confederate spy. The visiting students had brought their cameras and they had a field day taking pictures of Mason and his daughter, as well as the McLean House and other historic sites and scenes.

With an eye toward the Centennial Observance of One Hundred Years of Peace within America, to be carried on over the entire four years from April 14, 1961 to April 9, 1965, it has been suggested that an event similar to that of Tuesday be presented each April 9 until 1965.

The dignity and efficiency with which this year's presentation went would indicate that this would be very practical and continue the favorable publicity given to Appomattox.

Clean-Up Week has been designated for Appomattox for April 22-29. This campaign is being sponsored jointly by the Appomattox Garden Club and the Junior Chamber of Commerce. At a meeting of the Inter-Club Council, held last Thursday, April 4, in the A. H. S. Library, co-ordinated plans were made, with Frank M. McCann acting as chairman. Representatives of the clubs were: F. L. Murphy, Board of Supervisors; Walter Henry, High School P.-T. A.; Mrs. Willie Gills, P.-T. A.; Frank McCann, Junior Chamber of Commerce; Willie B. Morris, Lions Club; Mrs. Joel W. Flood, Woman's Club; Kenneth Christopher, A. H. S.; Jim Smith, 4-H Clubs; Richard Robinson, Town Mayor; Charles Thomas, Boy Scouts; Mrs. A. R. Harwood, Jr., Garden Club; and Mrs. Ivey Holland, American Legion Auxiliary.

A special effort is being made to intensify the campaign, in readiness for the special Appomattox County scheduled for Sunday, May 5. Letters urging all business places and home-owners to cooperate are being distributed, encouraging them to make Appomattox a beautiful place in which to live.

The Town Council is cooperating by offering special and individual collection from homes and business places to refuse and garbage. Calls to the Town Office that week will bring the town truck for hauling. The usual collection will be made, but will be supplemented during the week.

The Boy Scouts, under the direction of Charles Thomas, will make a special drive to clean-up unsightly spots, and the town truck will be at their disposal.

To Be Banquet Speaker

. . . . Miss Betty Wood

The F. H. A. was privileged in getting Betty Wood to be speaker at the Mother-Daughter Banquet this Friday night, April 12. Betty is a Junior at Concord High School and is a very active Future Homemaker. She was vice-president of the Federation for 1956-57 and at present is State Secretary. She has attended state and national conventions and has been selected for national F. H. A. vice-president. On top of other qualities, Betty has a charming personality. The topic of Betty's speech Friday night will be: "We, the Future Home-makers."

Two More In Contest Eor Town Council

Today is the deadline for candidates to file for the Town of Appomattox election of June 11, when a Mayor and six members of the Town Council will be named for two-year terms.

Latest candidates to file for the council are B. H. (Burke) Guill and Ivey Holland. Other candidates previously filed are: J. C. Caldwell, J. T. Almond, Mrs. Calvin Robinson, Grover E. Smith, J. T. Irby, Grover Beasley Jr., C. C. Poe, S. J. Evans, and T. Hunter Dickerson.

There are two candidates for Mayor: Richard D. Robinson and Charles Thomas Moses, Jr.

U. D. C. MEETS APRIL 21

The Appomattox Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet Thursday night, April 21, at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. T. M. Goldsby, of Concord.
